LOCAL BREVITIES.

Louis Tremain, the six-months-old son of E. W. Wright, died yesterday at 7 o'clock. The funeral will take place to-day.

The delivery wagon of F. P. Echard, while bumping over the rough places on Salem avenue, yesterday morning, was suddenly brought to a standstill by the front wheel going to pieces.

D. R. Miller is looking for a valuable bay mare which escaped from him near the Driving Park, Monday afternoon. She ran in the direction of Roanoke, but Mr. Miller has not yet been able to find her.

A little child of R. J. Eckloff is very ill and threatened with fever.

Mrs. L. J. Wood, of Baltimore, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Thompson.

Oliver Hinkey, the German professor of music, left yesterday for Farmville, where he will be absent several days visiting his relatives.

C. J. Ormsby, the champion swimmer of the State, is not in the best of humor that A. J. Donaldson, who recently gave an exhibition at Ocean View, did not accept his challenge. He does not think Mr. Donaldson has any right to claim the championship of the State until he proves himself such.

Walter and Miss Callie Staples left yesterday morning to visit relatives in Caroline county.

Mayor Evans paid a short visit to Salem last night on business.

The Virginia Packing Company's plant has been sold to the Exchange Building and Investment Company for $14,800.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans will meet next Monday night for organization.

Mrs. R. B. Knox, of Berkeley, Charles City county, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Masher, on Seventh avenue s. w.

Mrs. H. M. Damall and children left yesterday for Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Richmond to be absent for some time.

GUILTY OF MURDER.

Harry Christian, a former Roanoke Tough, Will Fall Hemp.

Detective Campbell is in the city, having returned from Perryville, McDowell county, W. Va., where he has been attending court. He was a witness in the case of Harry Christian, a negro, charged with shooting William Crow on October 22.

It seems that Crow was shot without provocation. The deed was nothing short of a cold-blooded murder, and Christian made his escape into Kentucky.

He took up his residence in Pike county, near the scene of some of the Hatfield-McCoy feuds, and spent the winter. He was soon located by Campbell, who wrote a letter to John Blankenship, the deputy sheriff of the county, describing Christian, and asked for his arrest.

It was not long before Campbell received word that Christian was corralled by the sheriff. He went at once to Kentucky and took charge of him, and succeeded in landing his man in the McDowell county jail.

He was tried before Judge McClagherty last week. A long chain of circumstantial evidence was clearly established, and the jury were out only ten minutes. They came in and the prisoner was found guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced to be hanged on the 17th of July.

Christian figured in this city several months ago, and came originally from Lynchburg.

After Spring Chickens.

Thieves entered the henery of Henry Eads on Fourth avenue s. w. early yesterday morning and carried off a lot of fine chickens. Entrance was effected by forcing the door. No clue to the thieves has been discovered. The police were not notified of the robbery until yesterday evening.

Amusements.

The World's Biorama, which will appear at the Opera House Thursday and Friday nights, will give a grand reproduction of the masterpieces of the most celebrated artist. This will be a most amusing and instructive entertainment.

Mrs. Charles Rice Dead.

Mrs. Chas. A. Rice, of Farmville, Va., died at her home Saturday evening, May 30th, and was buried Monday, June 1st, at Hampden-Sidney College. She was the mother-in-law of Col. Robt. E. Berkeley.

Ladies' Auction of Millinery Goods.
